

BRAZIL SUPPRESSES MUTINY OF MARINES

Two Hundred Killed and Wounded in Bombardment of Rebels on Cobra Island.

UPRISING ON SCOUTSHIP PUT DOWN BY OFFICERS

National Senate Declares Thirty-Day State of Siege.

FIRING KEPT UP TEN HOURS

Spectators Among Dead—Gen. Bar-roco Wounded While Directing Loyal Land Forces—Rio Janeiro Not Excited.

RIO JANEIRO, December 10.—After a severe artillery engagement, which lasted throughout the entire day, the mutinous naval battalion on Cobra Island surrendered at 11 o'clock tonight.

The rebels were almost annihilated by the fire from the land batteries and two Brazilian warships, losing more than 200 killed and wounded.

The sedition movement, it is believed, has now been completely throttled. The senate, however, despite the opposition of Ruy Barbosa, former president of that body, voted to declare a state of siege for thirty days.

Officers Sent Ashore.

A revolt occurred among the soldiers of the marine corps quartered in the fortress on Cobra Island last night. They captured their officers and sent them to the mainland.

The scoutship Rio Grande do Sul joined in the rising. The mutinous sailors were finally subdued by their officers and a portion of the local garrison that remained faithful.

At half-past 5 o'clock in the morning the guns of the land batteries were trained on the island, which lies in the bay of Rio Janeiro, only a short distance from the city and opposite the marine arsenal. A heavy fire was directed against the rebels.

This continued without cessation for five hours. Then a white flag appeared.
It was believed the rebels were ready to surrender. They asked only for an amnesty, however, probably for the purpose of removing the dead and injured.

The bombardment of the island ceased for half an hour and was renewed at 11 o'clock. Two land batteries and two loyal warships took part.

The artillery continued with great vigor until half-past 3 o'clock this afternoon.
The detonations of the big guns caused the whole city to tremble.

The island proved a good target for the batteries, and the rebels suffered a severe fire, employing considerable shrapnel. A number of people were killed among the shore and in adjoining streets.

Officer of Scoutship Killed.

The fight against the scoutship Rio Grande do Sul lasted three hours. Among the killed was one officer.

Several bands of the rebels climbed into the launch and drew the main front of the launch. They were forced to retire.

The government notified the leaders of the uprising that the island would be taken by assault if they did not surrender.

In the meantime, President Ponce de Leon, together with his family, while this was being discussed by the senate, the chamber assembled for the purpose of considering the situation, and to await the action of the senate.

The number of casualties on Cobra Island is said to be large. Notwithstanding the serious conditions which have arisen, the residents of the city remained calm, in the belief that the government would speedily put down the mutiny.

LONDON, December 10.—The Brazilian minister here, Mr. de Lima, charged d'affaires of the foreign office at Rio Janeiro today advising him that a battalion of marines stationed at that port had been mutinied and that the government had dispatched a warship, which promptly shelled the fort.

Gen. Barroco Wounded.

Senor de Lima e Silva, chargé d'affaires of the Brazilian embassy here, received a cablegram from the Brazilian minister of foreign affairs last night stating that at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the mutineers had suffered such heavy losses that they had signaled other ships in the harbor to permit small boats to pass to assist them.

Gen. Barroco of the federal army, who led the land forces in his bombardment of the mutineers, was wounded in the leg this afternoon by the explosion of a mine which he had placed in the rear of the mutineers.

More than a dozen ships of the Brazilian navy were then in the harbor, ready to assist the land forces. The Rio Grande do Sul, which was the mutineer's headquarters, was being shelled by the land batteries and the warships.

Other resolutions were passed urging universities to establish insurance courses and directing the manager to co-operate with other organizations to secure a federal health bureau.

CHICAGO, December 10.—Mrs. Rosa Douglas Lewis, wife of Col. James Hamilton Lewis, former congressman and corporation counsel of Chicago, has filed suit on a European tour, jewels worth that amount were stolen from her state-

POLICY OF GOV. DIX TO RECOVER LAND

Outline of His Attitude Toward the Corporations.

MAKES SPEECH AT DINNER

Moneyed Institutions Should Be Treated as Individuals.

A. B. PARKER ON THE TARIFF

Declares Democrats Will Subordinate Party to Public Good—Abolition of Shackles.

NEW YORK, December 10.—The beliefs of John A. Dix, business man, who will soon be Governor of New York, were indicated tonight as they affect his attitude toward the corporations, in his speech at a dinner given him by the Merchants' Democratic Association. In dealing with corporations, he said, the human element should be considered.

"That spells individual responsibility," he declared, "and it should be treated as such and should receive the same consideration as an individual. If its attitude toward our laws or its relation to any of our institutions transgresses those laws or the policies of our institutions, it is not only open to the same criticism as an individual, but should bear the responsibility of the transgressor."

Alton B. Parker a Speaker.

At the dinner another speaker besides Mr. Dix was ex-Judge John B. Parker.
Among the guests at the table were Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and Winfield A. Hupph, democratic state chairman. Mayor Gaynor, Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, chairman of the democratic national committee, and Edward M. Shepard, who were unable to be present, sent letters.

Ex-Judge Parker in his speech said, in part:

"The present tariff of abominations, as well as the combinations to restrain trade created in defiance of law in order to reap the full benefit of the exaction, which the tariff duties permit, have been most emphatically condemned by the verdict of the people."

Admitted by Republicans.

"No longer need it be argued that the people are burdened by the present statute. That fact stands admitted by great leaders of the republican party (which is responsible for every increase from an average of 20 per cent before the war to an average of 50 per cent), including the present President and his predecessor.
Their admissions are to be found in their pleas for a reduction, schedule into substance, one at a time."

"What remains to be done is for the Congress, after the immediate lowering of the tariff, to pass a law which would plan by which there shall come a gradual but sure reduction of duties, with the view of ultimately eliminating all favoritism."

"The situation demands statesmanship.
It requires from the Congress the accomplishment of a task which is not only present and future public good."

Has Faith in His Party.

"I have faith that it will be undertaken in that spirit and the outcome will prove wise and just. I, for one, have no fear that the democratic party will become a mere assistant to the republican party in its battle for the protection of interests against the people. But if such a situation should come, I would not spring into existence a new party having for its leading purpose the emancipation of the people from the tariff shackles that oppress them."

accomplish her record task and land her American passengers on this side of the Atlantic within the allotted twelve days.

Wagers have been laid at five to two that the Mauretania will be in her berth at Liverpool before Christmas eve. When the ship pulled out into the stream she was given a great send-off.

gary, and Mrs. Kereus, who will spend Christmas in St. Louis; the Prince and

OTHER LAND TO BE RECLAIMED

United States to Proceed for Recovery of Numerous Tracts Valued at Many Millions of Dollars.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., December 10.— Suit was filed by the federal government in the United States circuit court here today attacking the title of the Southern Pacific railway to 6,100 acres of oil lands in Kern county, valued at $10,000,000.
Fraud in the patenting of the lands is charged.

It is alleged that the railroad company patented the lands with the full knowledge that they were mineral bearing and could not be so patented under the land laws of the United States.

Inaugurates General Move.

This suit is said to be only the beginning of a general move on the part of the government to reclaim from the Southern Pacific oil lands in Kern, Kings and Fresno counties, valued at many millions of dollars. The action was brought by United States District Attorney A. I. Mc-Cormick, and the name of Attorney General Wickersham is attached to the complaint.

In brief, the suit asks that the patents to the lands be declared invalid in that the defendants be required to deed the lands to the United States free from in-consequence of fraud in title.

The action was prepared by Attorney McCormick and Willis N. Mills of Washington, D. C., special representatives of the Department of Justice.

Other Claims Contested.

Mr. Mills came to Los Angeles about two weeks ago to hear the opening arguments in the cases brought by George R. Roberts and Edmund Burke against the Southern Pacific to sue the corporation from oil lands held under the same claim as those involved in the suit filed today.

The suit is based on the construction of the act of Congress of July 25, 1890, and a resolution adopted June 28, 1879, under which the company was allowed to patent every alternate odd-numbered section for the full benefit of the exaction, which the right-of-way, in order to encourage the building of the road. In this grant mineral lands were excluded, and it is this exclusion which is said to render the patents invalid. It is said that maps of record in Washington show that the United States surveyors had designed these lands as mineral bearing at the time of making surveys in 1862, while the lands were not formally patented by the railroad until 1904.

The following defendants are named in the action:

Southern Pacific Company, Southern Pacific Railroad Company, Lomer S. King, trustee; James K. Wilson, trustee; Central Trust Company of New York; Equitable Trust Company of New York and Kern Trading and Oil Company.

List of Trustees.

King and Wilson, who are residents of San Francisco, and James K. Wilson, a trustee of a deed executed by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and purporting to secure the payment of $46,000,000 of the corporate bonds of the railroad company, which trust deed is claimed to be a lien upon the lands involved.

The Central Trust Company is said to be a trustee of $18,000,000 of bonds of the Equitable Trust Company of $8,500,000 of refunding bonds.

The Kern Trading and Oil Company is said to be a subsidiary of the Southern Pacific, "for the benefit of use" of the latter corporation.

90 per cent of the 33,000 engineers who actual figures were withheld by the en-according to Mr. Stone, the result of the recent strike vote will be shown the rail-

H. G. CARLETON DEAD; WAS NOTED PLAYWRIGHT

Had Been Ill for Several Years—Fought in Indian Campaigns.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., December 10.—By Henry Guy Carleton, author and dramatist, died today of paralysis after an illness extending over several years. He was sixty-four years old.

Mr. Carleton came to Hot Springs a year ago, suffering from rheumatism. For a time it was thought that his health would be restored. He relapsed, however, and for several months he was known that his condition was hopeless.

The plays which Henry Guy Carleton produced are nearly all well known, and are remembered by players for many years. He was a native of Colorado, and a tragedy in blank verse, in 1881, down to the time he wrote the play "The From Maxim" from the French. Before devoting most of his time to the writing of plays he showed versatile talents in several other directions.

Was Officer in Army.

He saw actual Indian service with Gen.
Miles in the campaigns against the Kiowas and Arapahoes in Texas in 1874 and 1875. At that time he was a second lieutenant in the 8th United States Cavalry, having received his appointment from civil life after graduating from Santa Clara College, in California. He resigned his commission shortly after his Indian experience to become associate editor of the New Orleans Times, on which paper he remained until 1880. In that year he became a special writer for the Chicago Tribune and two years later went to New York, where he wrote for the Times.

Mr. Carleton began writing plays about the time he wrote the play "The From Maxim" from the French. Before devoting most of his time to the writing
of plays he showed versatile talents in
several other directions.

His Best Known Plays.

Mr. Carleton's best known plays are "Mennon," "Victor Durand," "The Em-bertones," "The Lion's Mouth," "The Ear-trouble," "Princess of Eric," "A Gilded Fool," "The Butterflies," "That Imprudent Young Couple," "Ambition," "Colin-ette," "Jack's Honey-moon," "Never Again," "Ladies First" and "The Girl From Maxim."

He was born at Fort Union, New Mexico, June 21, 1846. He was unmarried.

EXPLOSION ON GRAMPUS; THREE HURT, ONE MAY DIE

Defective Intake Valve Responsible for Accident on Submarine.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., December 10.—By the explosion of a defective intake valve of the engine on the submarine boat Grampus today three enlisted members of the crew were injured, one so badly that it is expected he will die.

The accident occurred just as the boat was pulling alongside the wharf at Coronado, after a practice spin in the bay.
The injured are Herman Lay, aged twenty-two, chief electrician, skull fractured, probably fatally; B. B. Cooke, badly bruised, and P. H. Moul, cut and bruised.

Lay, who is a native of Colorado, and who had just qualified for submarine boat service, sustained the brunt of the explosion, which came when the motor was switched on to start the engine which supplies the motive power of the boat. A piece of defective valve struck him on the head.

First aid was applied as soon as possible. The injured were removed to the parent ship, Iris.

Previous to the accident the Grampus had spent more than an hour diving in the bay and running on the surface.
